

Fun Facts

about Stacy Claflin

- Stacy earned her 2nd degree blue belt in Tae Kwon Do. She also placed second in two different state championships. She may be tiny, but you don't want mess with her!
- In the 8th grade, she won an award for the school's "Best Dressed Ears" because of her wild and varied earring collection – many that she made herself!
- She's only three months younger than her brother. (Okay, fine. He's her stepbrother. But she does enjoy seeing people's reactions when she tells them.)
- Stacy homeschools her two boys in addition to being a full-time author.
- Before having kids, she and her husband owned five ferrets: Tigger, Buttercup, Tinkerbelle, Meeko, and Blossom – all named after cartoons.
- Stacy thinks (most) small snakes are cute. Bats, too.
- Her favorite music is just about anything from the 80's!
- She enjoys hiking and roller skating with her kids and the family dog, Lilly.
- Yes, she is related to Sam Claflin, the actor who played Finnick in the Hunger Games. He's her nephew – her husband is Sam's dad's brother.
